A 1940s Radio Christmas Carol, December 20, 7:30pm, Osceola Arts, Kissimmee.

Box Office: 407-846-6257.

Show description: Transport back to Christmas Eve, 1943 with this broadcasting from Newark, NJ. The Feddington Players are set to deliver a unique rendition of Dickens's "A Christmas Carol" amidst the chaos of live radio production.

The performance takes a poignant turn as William St. Claire, a seasoned actor but radio novice, experiences a personal crisis live on air, blending his life with Dickens's tale. The cast creatively navigates the mishaps, culminating in a film noir-inspired finale that promises mystery, intrigue, and a dash of humor.

Featuring original songs by "High School Musical's" Faye Greenberg and David Wohl, plus swing versions of Christmas classics, you'll enjoy drama, comedy, and holiday cheer.
